Subject: Next steps for Food and Lodging Establishments in Coconino County Impacted by Recent Flooding

Hello,

We hope this message finds you, your staff, and your families safe.

The unprecedented amount of rainfall experienced across our region in recent days has created significant challenges for many members of our business community. We recognize that these severe weather conditions and resulting flooding may have caused disruptions to business operations, property damage, and other hardships for our licensees.

We recognize the impact these events may have had on your business, and we are committed to supporting you in getting back up and running as quickly as possible.

If your business or adjoining parking area has been affected by the recent flooding or wastewater overflow, please contact the Coconino County Health and Human Services (CCHHS) Environmental Health Program for next steps, including:

- Reopening protocols
- Scheduling a reopening inspection

We understand that each business may be facing different circumstances, and we encourage you to reach out if you have questions or need assistance. Our goal is to help make the recovery process as manageable as possible and support you in safely returning to normal business operations.

Our thoughts are with everyone in our community affected by these events.

Please contact us to schedule a reopening inspection.
